JFK Promises Income Tax Cut by Jan. 1

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy pins his strategy for prosperity on a five-point tax package that includes across-the-board income tax cuts starting next January.

"There is no need for this country to stand helplessly by and watch a recovery run out of gas," Kennedy told his news conference Thursday.

"We have a program to boost it and I hope that all those who are concerned about their stocks or their profits or their jobs will help us get action on this program," he added.

Thus inviting public support, including support from critics who contend administration policies upset the stock market, Kennedy urged Congress to get down to business quickly on his proposals. Tax talk highlighted the news conference in which Kennedy snapped back at Republican detractors and said he would take the stump for Democratic candidates in the November elections.

He made clear the administration does not intend to recommend an immediate cut in income taxes. But he said he will offer a tax reform bill providing reductions in both personal and corporate income taxes, effective Jan. 1, for congressional action next year. Details are being worked out, he said, but will result in a net loss—the reductions "will not be wholly offset by other reforms."

He listed these other points in the program:

The House-passed tax credit for money invested in new machinery and equipment.

Department Store Sales Increase

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Department store sales in the Eighth Federal Reserve District the week ended June 2 were four per cent above those of the comparable week of 1961.

Sales in the Memphis area led the upsurge with a rise of eight per cent. St. Louis sales were up five per cent while sales in the Louisville area climbed four per cent.

However, sales in Little Rock fell eight per cent and in seven smaller district cities dropped four per cent.

District sales for the four-week period ended June 2 were 10 per cent higher than those of the similar four weeks last year.

Sales to date are six per cent higher than at this time last year.

Allies Warned Situation in Berlin to End

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union warned the Western powers today it will not permit West Berlin to continue as a base for what it called "revengist and militaristic circles."

A note to Britain, France and the United States threatened that "The Soviet Union will not hold the position of a disinterested observer and, in case of necessity, may be compelled to take the needed measures to fulfill its commitments to the (East) German Democratic Republic," which is an ally of the Soviet Union.

The notes added: "The Soviet Union cannot allow West Berlin to be used continuously by revengist and militarist quarters for purposes hostile to the cause of peace and to remain one of the dangerous sources of tension in the heart of Europe."

The notes were delivered to the British, French and U.S. embassies Thursday, but published only this evening.

They were the toughest statements the Russians have made recently on the Berlin problem. Issuance of the notes followed long conferences here between Premier Khrushchev and East German's Communist leader Walter Ulbricht.

"The intensified intrigues of the revengists and militarists in West Berlin prove once more how ripe the task of normalizing the situation in West Berlin and for elimination there of the occupation regime," the notes said, meaning withdrawal of the Allied garrisons.

The notes complained about a recent series of violent incidents at the Berlin wall. Most of these incidents involved East German police who were firing on escaping refugees. The Russians did not mention this factor.

Leading the list was the shooting May 23 between West Berlin police and East German guards in which one East German was killed.

The notes said the incidents had the character of "openly aggressive actions," adding, "They are clearly directed and organized by the hands of those who are trying to provoke a serious sharpening of the situation in West Berlin."

The British Foreign Office confirmed the receipt of the note without commenting officially on its contents.

A spokesman said the communication is under close study.

Candidates to Speak at Press Meet

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Six Arkansas gubernatorial candidates—five Democrats and a Republican—are expected to participate in a forum Saturday morning at the Arkansas Press Association's annual convention at Fort Smith.

Registration opened the convention today.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Thursday he expected to be too busy to attend the forum, but he reportedly told a friend if he did not participate it would be because he isn't ready to open his campaign this early.

Candidates scheduled to participate are Democrats Sid McMath, Vernon Whitton, Dale Alford, Kenneth Coffelt and David Cox, and Republican W. Harold Sadler.

Today's agenda included a business meeting, followed by a speech by Don Reid, managing editor of the Iowa Press Association. The newsmen and their wives are to attend a steak fry tonight at the Stephens Ranch in Oklahoma.

A bus tour of Fort Smith industrial locations is set for Saturday afternoon, and the banquet is Saturday night.

The APA board of directors met Thursday night.

Poultry Festival Gets Underway

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The annual Arkansas Poultry Festival opened in Little Rock Thursday with registration and a meeting of the board of directors of the Arkansas Egg Council.

Various meetings involving the poultry industry were on today's agenda. A President's Ball climaxes tonight's activities.

The Arkansas Poultry Princess contest and coronation are scheduled for Saturday night, with the 1962 Princess representing the state in the Miss Universe contest.

Also to be selected Saturday is the winner of the statewide Arkansas Chicken Cookin' contest.

Special guests at the festival will be singer Patti Page and Miss U.S.A.

Poultry Group Plans Drive for Members

Earl May of Bodcaw, one of the largest broiler growers in this part of the state, was named to direct an intensive membership drive at a meeting of the Southwest Arkansas Poultry Producers Association held this week at Bodcaw High School.

Membership in the local association will also include membership in the regional Northwest Poultry Growers Association and the national United States Poultry and Egg Producers Association.

Membership campaigns are being waged throughout the entire country in an effort to enroll at least 67% of all broiler growers in favor of a self help, self support program of broiler controls at the farm level. A two-thirds vote of broiler growers, through their local, regional and national associations, would permit the Secretary of Agriculture to establish a broiler marketing order.

The meeting at Bodcaw was well attended with a number of growers' attending who missed the first meeting. Another meeting will be held at Bodcaw Monday night, at 7:30, to launch the membership drive.

Mr. May will be assisted by the following committee members: Harley Cox, Falcon; Harland Tye, Bodcaw; Joel Simmons, Buckner; Bernice Dillard, Rosston; Finis Odum, Palmox; Arvis Miller, Prescott; Talmadge Merritt, Magnolia; Donny Tunsall, Hope; and Billy Ray Brown, Bodcaw.

The entire membership will be entitled to make the drive and plans are being made to contact every broiler grower in the area covered by the local association. In the absence of President T. J. Silvey of Bodcaw, Vice-President, Arthur M. Wimmell, McCaskill, presided.

Rocky Mound to Hold Revival

A revival meeting will begin Sunday, June 10, at Rocky Mound Baptist Church Services will be held at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. daily. The Rev. Perry Purdie is the evangelist.

Sweet Home to Start Meeting

There will be revival services at Sweet Home Church beginning Sunday, June 10 with the Rev. A. C. Kirby doing the preaching. The church is local five miles east of Westing on Highway 24 and nine west of Prescott. Zack Stone will lead the singing, according to J. B. Carman.

Farm Water Programs Outlined

Noel and Faughn, who recently bought the Shirley Robins farm near Ozan, have completed an irrigation reservoir to irrigate alfalfa haylands. The reservoir collects run-off water from the hill land to irrigate bottom land by gravity flow. The reservoir and irrigation plans were designed by George F. Brown of Hempstead County Soil Conservation Service.

T. O. Porter completed a stock water pond on his farm that he recently purchased from Horace Samuels. The farm borders on the Columbus road between Hope and Crossroads. Mr. Porter had the water line deepened to a two foot depth. He will also grow fish in this pond. Deepening the shoreline prevents moss and weed growth around the edges.

Monroe Samuel of DeAnn has planted 20 acres of Bahia grass for pasture. Bahia is a comparatively new grass for this area. It has a three week longer growing period than most other grasses and competes with weeds better than most other grasses.

Wiley Stuart completed a stock water pond on his farm south of Hope. He will also stock the pond with fish and fertilize with commercial fertilizer. The fish will be furnished by the Federal Fish Hatcheries.

Edward Schooley completed girdling 10 acres of cull hardwood to make room for additional pines, Hickory, and Cherrybark oak. Mr. Schooley's farm is north of Hope on the road to Oakhaven.

Dr. G. D. Royston recently completed girdling 40 acres of cull hardwoods to allow increased growth of pine and white oak.

Mrs. Holloway and Mrs. Trimble completed a drainage system on 80 acres of their farm north of Ozan.

Ned Purdie completed a main drainage ditch 8300 feet in length. Mr. Purdie and George F. Brown of Soil Conservation Service, have designed a complete drainage system to drain the excess water from his entire farm. Mr. Purdie will do part of this each year until it is completed.

Golden Age Club Holds Luncheon

The Golden Age Club held a spring luncheon at the Youth Center on Thursday. The day's activities began at 9 a. m. and ended at 2:30 p. m., with a large group attending.

George Frazier, past president of the Kiwanis Club, attended the luncheon as a special guest and delivered a short talk commending the Club on its progress and statewide recognition. He also reminded the Club of the contributions made to the organizations by the late Henry Seamans.

Members took part in games and other activities, with prizes being awarded to the winners.

The Club recognized all ladies that planned and carried out the day's activities. Plates were sent to all members unable to attend.

The next regular meeting will be on June 21st.

Rehabilitation Grant

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. George W. Jackson, superintendent at the State Hospital, said Thursday a $179,000 grant to finance a rehabilitation project for discharged patients has been received from the National Institute of Mental Health. The seven-county project will open July 1 at El Dorado, Jackson said.

Fired Counsel Says Estes Case Distorted, Truth Is Suppressed

Ceiling Is Set But Foreign Aid May Be Slashed

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has voted a $4.7-billion ceiling on foreign aid spending next year—just about what President Kennedy requested.

But there's evidence Congress intends to slash away at the aid program before it finally provides the money that may be spent.

The measure passed Thursday by the Senate 61 to 23 simply sets limits on aid spending in the fiscal year that begins July 1.

The appropriations will be handled later in separate legislation. Actually, the administration had to settle for partial victory on its embattled provision for aid to Communist Poland and Yugoslavia in an attempt to wean them away from Soviet domination.

Wednesday the Senate voted 57 to 24 to bar foreign aid to such countries. But, with heavy pressure from the White House and combined appeals from Democratic and Republican leaders, the Senate retreated Thursday and voted 56 to 34 to exempt gifts and sales of surplus food.

It still left the ban on any assistance under the foreign aid bill intact, including $10 million in economic development loans the administration had programmed for Yugoslavia next fiscal year.

At his news conference Kennedy welcomed the action on food saying it would give him the necessary flexibility to help peoples who want to remain independent.

Only a short time later administration forces succeeded by the narrow vote of 45 to 40 in rejecting an amendment by Sen. Norris Cotton, R-N.H., which would have denied foreign aid to countries which export arms or strategic materials to Sino-Soviet bloc countries, including Cuba.

No attempts were made to cut the bill so far as money is concerned.

It carries authority for $600 million for fiscal 1963 for the Alliance for Progress program in Latin America and $800 million for each of the succeeding three years.

In addition it authorizes $95 billion for military assistance and $1.25 billion for economic development loans outside Latin America, authorized last year.

Neither of these items were subject to reduction in the authorization bill but likely will be the targets for sharp cuts when the appropriations bill comes up.

Ashdown Receives Waterworks Bids

ASHDOWN, Ark. (AP) — Southland Construction Co. of Texas has submitted the apparent low bid of $183,722 for improvements in the city water and sewer systems.

The bid has been approved by the City Council and sent to the state Health Department for review. A previous bidding was held on the same project, but bids were rejected then as too high.

Laos Princes Adjourns Conference

KHANG KHAY, Laos (AP) — Neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma said today the three princes summit conference has decided to adjourn its sessions until Monday to give its members time to reflect on the formation of a coalition government.

Emerging red-faced from a half-hour afternoon meeting with his half-brother, Prince Souphanouvong, and pro-Western Premier Prince Boun Oum, Souvanna told reporters: "One or two unsettled points obliged us to postpone the meeting until Monday and each party has demanded time for reflection."

He added that he hoped Monday's meeting will be the last one before he announces a formation of a coalition Cabinet.

Boun Oum and his delegation which includes strong man Gen. Phoumi Nosavan, flew back to Vientiane and will return here Monday.

Co-op Re-elects Three Officers

OZARK, Ark. (AP) — Three members of the board of directors of the Arkansas Valley Electric Cooperative were re-elected to three-year terms at the co-op's 24th annual membership meeting Thursday night at Ozark.

They are John Pendergrass of Charleston, M. B. Taylor of Waldron and Charles Hobbs Jr., of Rudy.

Guest speaker at the meeting was John Baker of Paris, director of Agricultural Credit for the U.S. Department of Agriculture at Washington.

Mena Jobless Area

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — J. L. Bland, administrator of the state Employment Security Division, said Thursday the Mena area has been designated by the U.S. Labor Department as an small area of substantial and persistent unemployment. The designation qualifies the area for redevelopment aid.

Admits Taking Some Money From Billy Sol

WASHINGTON (AP)—James T. subcommittee investigating the of agriculture, testified today he received two $100 money orders from Billy Sol Estes last January and his assistant, William E. Morris, got two more—a total of $400.

On the heels of this testimony, Robert E. Manuel, dismissed Republican counsel to the House, amounted to a news conference. Estes case, charged that numerous others also received such money orders—including some members of Congress and at least one "very high ranking administration official."

Manuel said Morris has a list of those who received the money orders.

Manuel, fired by the subcommittee Thursday for giving a confidential Agriculture Department report to a newspaper reporter, came out fighting today.

He issued a statement that the subcommittee's investigation "is being distorted and the truth suppressed" and then held what amounted to a news conference to comment on the day's hearings.

One of the assertions in Manuel's statement was that an Agriculture Department employee, had told Manuel that Estes tried to pressure him by invoking the names of the late House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, but that Johnson's name never came out when this man testified publicly.

Ralph testified that when the money orders came in the mail, he asked Morris what they were for, and Morris replied he thought they were for tickets to a $100-a-plate Kennedy inaugural anniversary dinner to be held soon in Washington.

As Ralph put it, "Estes made a contribution of $100 to the Democratic National Committee through me."

He said he endorsed one of them to the California Democratic committee, and one to the national committee. He said Morris took the money orders to the committee headquarters and got the dinner tickets, which were given to Estes.

Ralph said there was no letter of transmittal with the money orders, just two square $100 money orders in an envelope with Estes name on it.

"Because I didn't like this sort of thing," Ralph added, "I had my assistant write a memorandum to the secretary" about it. He meant Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

He said he did not talk with Estes at any time about the money orders, but saw him at another table at the dinner later that month.

Chairman L. H. Fountain, D-N.C., asked why he did not send the money orders back to Estes. Ralph said the thought was in his mind that somewhere in the Post Office Department would be "unexplained money orders with my name on it and with Estes' name on it."

He said it was his and Morris' best judgment that they were meant for dinner tickets and that they handled it that way.

Asked by Fountain why Estes didn't make his contribution directly to the national committee, Ralph said, "I can't explain Mr. Estes' actions."

In a statement, Manuel quoted an Agriculture Department official as saying Estes personally pressured him by invoking the names of the late House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, but that John

AWARD-WINNING WINDOW—Monumental stained glass window, containing 4,384 chunks of colored glass arranged in an abstract pattern, is an example of modern-day church art. The 40-foot-long, 10-foot-high window is shown as it was seen by church builders meeting in Cleveland, Ohio, for the 1962 National Conference on Church Architecture. Built by the J. W. Winterich Studios of Cleveland, it was chosen by the Stained Glass Assn. of America to be used in the Christian Witness Pavilion at the Seattle World's Fair. Seen from indoors, sunlight illuminates the glass. Outside, it is an opaque, textured mosaic. At night, floodlit from the interior, these two functions are reversed, with a window on the outside and a wall on the inside. The Seattle pavilion is sponsored by 19 denominations.

Bentonville to Vote on Bonds

BENTONVILLE, Ark. (AP) —
Residents of Bentonville will vote on a proposed $155,000 bond issue
Tuesday to help finance construction of a hospital.

The proposed hospital would cost about $500,000. Mayor Wayne Lawson said it would replace the Bates Memorial Hospital.
Lawson said the city had raised more than $100,000 for the hospital, and the rest of the money would be federal matching funds under the Hill-Burton act. The proposed hospital would have 40 to 44 beds.
The bonds would be repaid by a five-mill property tax.

PICK a Chevy PACK up the family & GO traveling

If variety is the spice of your life, see the choice selection of buys now at your Chevrolet dealer's One-Stop Shopping Center. One of those new Chevrolets, Chevy II's or Corvairs should suit you perfectly and spare your budget any strain!
We wouldn't presume to tell you which one to buy, but your Chevrolet dealer has more ways of helping you make up your mind. Like the Jet-smooth Chevrolet Impala, luxurious, extremely comfortable, undoubtedly the best riding car in its field; the Chevy II Nova, lively, lovely, and inexpensive, too;
the Corvair Monza, a family car that rather thinly disguises its desire to be a sports car; and the Corvette, America's out-and-out sports car. As you see, your Chevrolet dealer has just the tonic for that "let's go traveling" look in your eye. And, what's nice about buying one, you won't have to juggle your life around to afford it. You know?

Your fun 'n' free ways to get away (shown top to bottom) are the Corvette, Corvair Monza Coupe, Chevy II Nova Sedan and Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan.

Now, beautiful buying days at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's Golden Sales Jubilee!

Kennedy Is Vague on Aid to Viet Nam

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — There is probably no activity in which the Kennedy administration has been so vague or silent as on the economic and military aid it is giving South Viet Nam.

The United States, under the Kennedy and Eisenhower administrations combined, has put about $2 billion in aid into South Viet Nam in its fight against Communist guerrillas.

President Kennedy has sent a force of perhaps 6,000 military men there, plus various kinds of military equipment, including about 80 helicopters.

Exact information on the equipment, the men, and what they're doing is supposed to be classified technically as a military secret.

The French, before they gave up, held South Viet Nam as a colony. Now the country, with its own government under President Diem, is in effect a dictatorship.

The Communist guerrillas had been making a lot of progress.

When Kennedy was a senator, he emphasized repeatedly that South Viet Nam needed economic aid and reforms to give the masses of the people a tangible reason for opposing the Communists and their promises.

Last October Kennedy sent his military adviser, Gen. Maxwell Taylor, over there to see what was needed. Last December, after Taylor's return, the administration let out this information:

That military help to Viet Nam would be increased and that the Diem government had agreed to a dozen new steps—including social reforms and more representative government—to make the anti-Communist fight tougher.

Everything since then—on the subject of reforms—has been extremely vague.

But what kind of help the American military forces are giving South Vietnamese has also been extremely shadowy. Kennedy has Calif., are visiting the Clarence Hunt family and the "Bud" Hunt family.

Mrs. Ebb Johnson, and son, Billy, of Texarkana spent Wednesday in Hope visiting her mother, Mrs. E. G. Coop.

Mrs. Cary Castle is making her home here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Davis, while her husband is in the army at Ft. Chaffee. She is working as a receptionist at the local C of C.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ed Basye, Danny, and Judy of Cleveland, O., left Friday after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Basye and Mr. and Mrs. Hendrix Spraggins as well as other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Jim Faulkner and children of Pine Bluff are spending this week in Fulton with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Cox.

David Hendrix and Webb Laseter, III were Thursday visitors in Little Rock.

Mrs. Bobby Campbell, Mrs. Lloyd Guerin, and Mrs. E. P. Young, Jr. are in Little Rock for the Chicken Cooking Queen contest at the State Poultry Festival.

Mrs. John B. Gardner, Jr., went to an alumni luncheon of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority in Texarkana Thursday.

No Place for Grandpa

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My grandparents always lived in an apartment in New York, just below my aunt and uncle. When grandmother died a month ago, Grandpa came to live with us and we have been miserable ever since.

He beats my dog, goes through my parents' checkbooks when they are not around (I've seen him) and cross-questions us like a jailer. Where are we going? What time will we be back? Why must you stay that long?

It's made our once-happy home a prison with him the keeper.

His darned superiority gets on my mother's nerves, too. Ordinarily she's a wonderful person; sweet, kind and lots of fun. But since her father's coming she is irritable, glum and moody.

When Grandpa first arrived he announced he would only stay a week. Now it looks like he would be with us always. It may be an awful thing to ask, but how can we get him to go home? —Fed Up Teen, California

Dear Fed Up: Your grandfather is a lonely, insecure old man, else he wouldn't do as he does. To pack him off the silent, New York apartment where he lived with a wife now dead, would be heartless. See this as an opportunity to prove your maturity.

Face up to the problem on home ground. Treat Grandpa as a blessing not a blight. A grandfather can be a blessing. It all depends upon the amount of love you give forth. Make the acquaintance of your grandfather, something which was evidently neglected because you lived in the West and he in the East. Discover his interests. Share them with him.

Dear Helen: I am to debate, in our final week of high school, upon the pros and cons of the senior prom. I believe in the prom and am determined to fight for its survival. Why should the said this is a sensitive subject.

Here are some bits of information picked out of AP stories which have come out of South Viet Nam in the past six months about the American military role there.

American fliers ferry South Vietnamese troops in helicopters to the battle zone. U.S. pilots are in the cockpits of Vietnamese fighting planes, instructing Diem's pilots in "the learn while you fight" principle.

Further: U.S. advisers are in the jungles, marshes and forests, working with Vietnamese commanders down to the company level. And one AP dispatch reported a U.S. Army field grade officers as saying:

"Our people are fighting along with the Vietnamese, counterpart to counterpart."

"American servicemen are being shot at by the Communist Viet Cong and they are shooting back. We're supplying arms and equipment and we're fighting and, if that isn't war, I don't know what is."

son's name was not brought into public testimony.

Manuel added: "This incident points up the way this investigation is being distorted—and the truth suppressed—either because of shoddy preparation, or a willingness to cover up."

Manuel said another incident involves a discussion by the subcommittee in closed session of how to deal with testimony "which would implicate certain members of Congress and at least one very high-ranking administration official."

"The testimony, taken in executive session, related to a list of individuals to whom Estes allegedly sent gifts in the form of money orders," Manuel added.

He said it was against this background that he decided, "as a matter of conscience and duty to the public," to give a confidential Agriculture Department report on the Estes case to a newspaper reporter.

The reporter, who Manuel described as a longtime friend, was Earl Mazo of the New York Tribune.

It was for this action that Manuel was discharged after a day-long subcommittee wrangle before the Senate.

Cottillon Club Members Attend State Meeting

The 57th Annual Session of the Arkansas Association of Colored Women and Girls Clubs, Inc., was held in Camden, Ark., June 8-9. Theme: "New Directions for Expanding Democracy."

The meeting was opened with greetings from Mr. Bill Shelton, Secretary of Chamber of Commerce, Rev. Hampton, Ministerial Alliance, and Mrs. Ruth Jackson, President of Southwest Region.

Guest Speakers: Dr. R. D. Crockett, President of Philander Smith College, Mrs. S. W. Ingram, Texarkana, Ark., and Miss Etta Williams, President of Girls Clubs, Magnolia, Ark.

Each speaker spoke from the Theme.

In keeping with the Theme, a Pageant, where women of all Regions participated, was presented by Mrs. Myrtle Williams, Little Rock.

The Girls' Talent program climaxed the meeting. From the Junior Cottillon Club, the following delegates participated in the program: Misses Linda A. Pontexter, reading, "To a Water-fowl" (2nd place winner), Robbie Jewel Davis, Instrumental Solo, "Prelude in C Sharp Minor," Chopin, and Lurlean Williams.

A picnic held in Ira Clark Park was enjoyed by all.

Delegates from the senior Cottillon Club were Mrs. Captoria Smith, Mrs. E. S. Conway. Other members attending the meeting were Mrs. G. Williamson, Mrs. L. J. Yarger, Mrs. N. R. Yarger, accompanied by Mrs. Charlie Johnson.

JFK Promises

ules by which companies save money through tax writeoffs for depreciation of plant and equipment.

Kennedy estimated these two steps would represent a tax reduction for business of more than $2.5 billion.

Approval of his request, for standby authority to cut taxes in order to head off threats of recession. The House Ways and means committee hasn't acted on this proposal.

Repeal of the 10 per cent tax on rail and bus transportation and cutting the tax on air travel in half, to 5 per cent.

Kennedy declared he will be active in the fall election campaigns. And he congratulated former Vice President Richard M. Nixon for winning the GOP gubernatorial primary in California. That's one state in which Kennedy is expected to appear, on behalf of Nixon's opponent, Gov. Edmund G. Brown. Other states which party supporters believe he is most likely to invade are Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Michigan, Kentucky and possibly Oregon, Utah and South Dakota.

Kennedy took a swing at Republican National Chairman William E. Miller and other GOP leaders after repudiating a statement by Democratic Chairman John M. Bailey accusing Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York of prejudice against Negroes. He said he had been waiting "for about a year and a half" for leading Republicans to repudiate some of the charges Miller had flung against him.

On other matters: Foreign Aid-Kennedy said he was glad the Senate restored at least the government's authority to aid Poland and Yugoslavia with surplus food.

Obituary

Funeral services for Mrs. Marian C. Griffin, who died June 5, at Oakland, Calif. were held Thursday. Survivors include her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Horace and grandmother, Mrs. Ella J. Yarger, her husband, Al Griffin, a stepson, Gerald and a brother, James L. Horace Jr.

Hempstead County Barracks 558 will hold a special meeting Saturday June 9, at 2 p. m. at the Community Center to elect delegates to the American Legion meeting at Lafayette Hotel, Little Rock, June 14-15. Commander Lee Tyus called the meeting.

One For My Dame

By JACK WEBB

Chapter 35

That certainly didn't cover it, but the police stenographer came in then, and I signed my statement.

Geiser said, "That should hold you until the Hinton girl's trial." "What does Ginny say?" I demanded.

"Nothing. Not one solitary thing." He mentioned the name of the lawyer who was saying it for her. Then he reached his hat from the foot of the bed and stood. "Jackson," he said, "would you tell me one thing?" "You've got my signed statement."

"This isn't the sort of thing you take to court. I want to know why you chased her with your hands tied behind your back, why you did a fool thing like diving head first over the top of her car."

"Low car," I said, "high curb, I tripped."

He stood staring down at me. Finally he shook his head. "Jackson," he said, "you've got it wrong. It was about 10 years ago in Korea you tripped. The other night you came to your feet."

The Lieutenant clapped his hat on the top of his head and went out the door.

One fly in the ointment. I couldn't get in touch with Carla. I built up a fat phone bill trying. Roma Vista had an unlisted phone. The late Congressman's office was less than co-operative. It was, in fact, somewhat hysterical. Finally I thought of Marty Menken, the real one, the one I'd never met. She was the ninth Menken in the book.

She thought I must be a wonderful person from what she had read in the papers, but she couldn't tell me where Carla was. Even Geiser, when I finally called him, would say only, "... not at liberty to reveal."

Then Hannibal dropped in. Greatest thing that ever had happened, the two of us joining forces. Look at the residuals!

Life was giving him a page. "Model guest for model homes." Look had sent their West Coast rep to talk about a feature story. He was dickering with one of the shelter mags to do a piece on "Comfort in Your Bathroom."

He had talked to Hitchcock in the Brown Derby. Hannibal would carry on, white tie, tails, and all that sort of thing; a sort of Paladins from Oxford.

"Lieutenant Geiser tells me you caught Arnaldi single-handed. We want to let me in on the details."

"Well," said Hannibal comfortably, "you do recall that I promised to come back for

Twins Climb a Notch, Yanks Take Shutout

By JIM HACKLEMAN

The Minnesota Twins climbed a notch toward the American League top Thursday leading Kansas City 5-2 behind the pitching of right-hander Joe Mauer and the key hitting of Rich Rollins.

That victory, coupled with the New York Yankees 4-0 shutout of Cleveland reshuffled the top of the standings. The Yanks kept their hold on first place but Minnesota jumped up to second on the same out—and the Indians fell to third, two games behind.

In other games: Boston tripped Detroit 5-4, Chicago beat Los Angeles 8-4, and Baltimore crushed Washington 12-5.

In the National League, Chicago nipped San Francisco 4-3. Pittsburgh rallied for a 3-2 decision over Los Angeles. St. Louis rapped Cincinnati 3-2 and then overcame Milwaukee 3-2. New York and Philadelphia had the day off.

Bonkowski, 21, a slender Pennsylvanian, held the Athletics to six hits. He struck out five and did not allow a walk, winning his fifth against four losses.

Kansas City starter Dave Wickensham took the defeat.

Bill Stafford's shutout was the Yanks' second straight over Cleveland in their abbreviated two-game series with the Indians.

Stafford faced only 29 men, retiring the first 10 in order.

Roger Maris led off the fourth with his 10th homer for New York's first hit off loser Jim Perry, and it stayed 1-0 until the Yankees got three insurance runs in the eighth.

The Red Sox nipped the Tigers with an eighth inning run. Before that it had been a home run duel with pitcher Earl Wilson and Gary Geiger connecting for Boston and Rocky Colavito and Jake Wood for Detroit. Arnold Earley was the winning pitcher and Ron Kline the loser.

Al Smith sparked the White Sox over the Angels, getting five hits in five tries. In all, Chicago batters collected 14 hits off five Los Angeles pitchers, starting with loser Eli Grba.

Eddie Fisher got the victory in relief of Juan Pizarro.

The Orioles scored in all but two innings against the Senators, hammered out 14 hits, collected seven walks and rolled up their biggest score of the season. Jack Fisher was Baltimore's starting pitcher but failed to last past the third. He was taken out after Chuck Hinton's two-run homer and Billy Helt's went the rest of the way. Washington left-hander Pete Burnside, chased in the Orioles' four-run second, was the loser.

Belmont's Rich Stake Saturday

By JOHN CHANDLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The richest of all Belmont stakes since the great classic was inaugurated in 1867, will be raced Saturday at Belmont Park.

Seven 3-year-olds are scheduled to go postward in the 1 1/4-mile test, barring any late developments.

Seven starters would make the purse $152,050, with the winner grabbing $103,300. Sherlock took a record $104,900 last June.

The leading contenders are George A. Pope Jr.'s Decidedly, Donald P. Ross' Greek Money, George D. Widener's Jaipur, and Peter W. Salmen Sr.'s Crimson Satan.

The others, who can't be counted out after last year's experience with Sherlock ($132,100—for $21), are Fred W. Hooper's Admiral's Voyage, Frank E. Power's Viny Ridge, and Louis Wolfson's David K.

Decidedly broke the Churchill Downs track record in winning the Kentucky Derby five weeks ago. But ran poorly in the Preakness at Pimlico May 19, as Greek Money nosed Riddan in their rough finish line thriller.

Dodgers Lose Chance to Take Over Top

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Andre Rodgers may have saved his job with a sudden display of power for the Chicago Cubs.

The young shortstop stroked a bases-loaded single in a three-run fourth inning uprising against National League leading San Francisco, then tagged a homer in the sixth for the deciding run as the Cubs whipped his former teammates 4-3 Thursday.

Rodgers, 27 and hitting only .263, might have been on the bench if Alex Grammas, acquired in a trade two days ago, had reported to the Cubs. At game time Grammas still was missing and Rodgers played.

Second-place Los Angeles lost an opportunity to take over first place when Dick Stuart hit a three-run homer in the last of the ninth and gave Pittsburgh a 3-2 victory over the Dodgers. That kept the Dodgers a half-game back of the Giants.

Elsewhere, St. Louis won its third straight after snapping an eight-game losing streak by belting Cincinnati 8-2 and Houston came from behind to edge Milwaukee and Warren Spahn 3-2. The New York Mets and Philadelphia were not scheduled.

In the American League, Bill Stafford pitched a two-hitter as the first-place New York Yankees blanked Cleveland 4-0 and dropped the Indians to third. Minnesota moved into second with a 5-2 conquest of Kansas City. Boston nipped Detroit 5-4, and Chicago White Sox thumped Los Angeles' Angels 8-4 and Baltimore walloped Washington 12-5.

Rodgers' heroics tagged left-hander Billy Pierce with his first National League defeat after eight victories. Don Cardwell (2-6), who scattered six hits, went the route for the victory.

The Dodgers gave Johnny Podres a 2-0 lead on Willie Davis' homer with one on in the third and the southpaw had a four-hit shutout until the ninth when Dick Stuart and Roberto Clemente hit consecutive singles leading off the inning. That chased Podres and brought on Larry Sherry, whose second pitch was hit by Stuart for the game-winner. El Roy Face (4-1) picked up the triumph in relief.

Backed by an 18-hit Cardinal attack, Ernie Broglio (2-2) held the Reds to seven hits.

Julian Javier and Julio Gotay each had three hits off Jim O'Toole (4-6) and his successors. The Braves moved ahead 2-1 in the fifth on Ed Mathews' run-producing single. But singles by Jim Pendleton, Norm Larker, Marritt Raney and Billy Godman gave the Colts two in the last of the ninth and left Spahn (6-6) with the loss. Former Brave Don McMahon (2-1) won it in relief.

Baseball Title to Be Decided

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—state high school baseball championship is to be decided tonight—if the weather cooperates.

Semifinal games were scheduled this afternoon between Greenwood and Monette and Greene County Tech and Joe T. Robinson who'll complete a game rained out last week in the eighth inning with the score 0-0.

Winners of the semifinals will meet at 7:30 tonight for the championship.

Pitcher Warren Spahn will become a 20-year man in baseball's major leagues on Sept. 3, 1962.

Stock Market Flutters Sends Gold Price Up

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Wide swings in stock prices here and overseas have sent the price of gold up after months of stability. Gold mining stocks also have been strong, especially on the London market.

Gold always glitters more when stocks look uncertain. And helping just now is a big upswing in U. S. imports this year. This raises anew the problem of what to do about the continuing deficit in U. S. balance of payments and the renewed outflow of U. S. gold in recent weeks.

The American dollar isn't in any present danger. Pressure on it in world financial markets hasn't been great, despite all the furore on Wall Street and the talk of big Treasury deficits ahead.

The U. S. Treasury has new means of protecting the dollar through a pool worked out by the central banks of the United States, Britain, France, West Germany and other financial centers. The pool can be drawn upon to ward off any moderate run on a threatened currency.

But any jump in the price of gold on the London free market catches the eye of those charged with protecting the dollar. The memory of the run on our gold stores in the fall of 1960 is still fresh.

Gold was quoted on the London exchange Thursday at $35.09½ an ounce, up from $35.08½ the previous day. Only a few weeks back it had fallen below $35.08—roughly the cost of buying an ounce from the U. S. Treasury.

The premium now over the U. S. official price could lead European central banks with surplus dollars to exchange them for gold. While a number of these banks, principally the Bank of England, have been doing just that this year, the move was to strengthen their resources, and presumably was done with the knowledge and approval of the U. S. government.

While the current rise in the demand for gold on the London free market—gold can't be bought or sold in the United States except for industrial and artistic uses or for the account of a foreign central bank—is due largely to the weakness in the stock market. Other factors are involved.

One is uncertainty about the course of U. S. government finances. Will taxes be cut? Will tax collections drop enough to bring on a big Treasury deficit? Will pump priming or other government spending have the same result?

Another is the uncertainty this year in the deficit in the balance of payments—a deficit lasting now for several years because we sent more dollars abroad than we got back.

The balance of trade, on the other hand, has been in our favor. This is the excess of exports over imports. But this year imports have risen to an annual rate of $1 billion, well over the 1961 pace of $14.8 billion for the entire year. April imports were the highest in more than two years.

Fishing Around Arkansas Lakes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission issued the following fishing forecast for the state today:

Lake Maumelle: Water condition is good. Bass and crappie fair to good fishing deep with live minnows and artificial bait; bream good on crickets and worms; bass schooling very early and late.

Lake Conway: Water clear and normal. Bass fair on artificial bait and minnows; crappie fair on minnows; bream good on crickets, worms.

Lake Greeson: No report.

Lake Catherine: Water clear, condition normal. Bass fair on artificial bait; crappie fair on minnows; bream fairly good on crickets, worms, popping bugs.

Lake Hamilton: Water in good condition. All fishing good early and late on all baits.

Lake Ouachita: Water clear and normal. Black bass fair on artificial and live bait; bream good on crickets, worms; crappie poor.

Lake Bull Shoals: Bass fair at night on plastic worms, jigs and eels; crappie fair on live minnows and crappie jigs.

Marilyn Sick, Producers Too

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Marilyn Monroe says she's sick and her producers say they're sick and tired.

Marilyn, complaining of a virus, showed up only once in the first 15 days of shooting on "Something's Got to Give."

"Even when she does show up," said a high front-office source at 20th Century-Fox, "she isn't prepared for her role. She comes late and leaves early."

The studio source, who asked anonymity, hinted Wednesday that producers are ready to look for a replacement—possibly Kim Novak.

One of the few unconcerned people at the studio is co-star Dean Martin, who is calling himself "the highest paid golfer in history."

Marilyn herself couldn't be reached for comment.
